2 August 2013

Dear Parent / Guardian

National Day Celebrations 2013 @ SKPS

On 7 August 2013, Seng Kang Primary School will be celebrating National Day to commemorate our 48 years as an independent nation.

National Day marks our separation from Malaysia, and our emergence as an independent country in the community of nations. This Ceremony aims to bring to the students a greater sense of the historical importance and solemnity of National Day. This is in line with our school mission to develop a community of concerned citizen.

This year's theme is "Many Stories... One Singapore". Through the stories of earlier generations, we learn about the efforts and sacrifice of our people building this nation. As a nation, we have pulled together to overcome crises like during the SARs outbreak 10 years ago and the recent haze conditions, to emerge stronger and more united as one Singapore.

The outline of events for ND:

Time	Events	Venue
7.30 – 8.00am	Ceremonial Segment	Parade Square
8.00 – 8.45am	Community Singing	Parade Square
9.00 – 10.20am	Celebration Segment	Basketball Court
	P1-P3 will be watching the P3 Sk Buskers Performance
	P4-P6 will be watching the P4 Musical	Multi Purpose Hall

Do note that the Lower Primary pupils will be dismissed at 10.25am and Upper Primary pupils will be dismissed at 10.30 a.m.

All pupils are encouraged to wear a red or white t-shirt with their school skirt or shorts. P5 pupils are encouraged to use their NE show T-shirt. Everyone must come to school in their school shoes and socks.

With the skills that the P5 pupils have learnt during their photography classes, each class will produce a photo collage with their form teachers. The photo collages will be put up in the school hall for ND decorations. The purpose of the photo collage making exercise is to promote citizenry, team work, creativity and it is in line with the theme this year; creating their own stories based on their experience during the NE Show. These activities tie in with our school values, Resilience, Respect, Confidence and Integrity.

In Seng Kang Primary School, every child will be a part of the celebration and we hope that they will have fun while learning to appreciate our history and work towards creating their own stories for themselves, for the school, for the community and for Singapore. As parents, you can do your part by further engaging in discussions with your child on creating his stories for a brighter and better future.

Thank You.

Yours Sincerely
