9 February 2015

Dear Parent / Guardian,

Chinese New Year Eve Celebrations: 18 February 2015 (Wednesday)

The school will be ushering in the Year of the Goat with a Chinese New Year celebration on Wednesday 18 February 2015. As 18 February is the eve of Chinese New Year, please take note of the following information for that day:

1. School will be dismissed at 10 am on 18 February 2015. The bus operators will be notified of the change of dismissal time.
2. Pupils are encouraged to come to school in traditional costume. Otherwise, they are to wear their full school uniform.
3. Pupils are required to bring only a storybook to read before assembly.
4. As Chinese New Year falls on Thursday 19 February and Friday 20 February, pupils will return to school on Monday 23 February.

During the Chinese New Year holidays, while celebrating the Chinese Spring festival or just relaxing and recharging with your child, do make use of teachable moments to impart valuable lessons like pride in one's ethnic culture, respect for another culture as well as respect for one's elders, to your child.

According to the Chinese Zodiac, the goat symbolizes creativity, generosity and intelligence. We hope that our pupils will also be imbued with these attributes which they will use wisely to achieve success in both the academic and non-academic areas. The school wishes all our parents and pupils a healthy and prosperous Year of the Goat!

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Winefrede Loo
Vice-Principal

Cc Mrs Rabia Shahul, Principal
Mr Hamri A Jalil, Vice-Principal (Administration)
