Racial Harmony Day 2013

Dear Parent / Guardian

Seng Kang Primary School will be commemorating Racial Harmony Day (RHD) on 18 July 2013.

Through the various activities that pupils will be engaged in throughout this week, we hope that our pupils will be able to make friends with people of other races and religions in their daily interactions and to appreciate the different cultures that make up Singapore.

Racial Harmony Day serves to remind our pupils that disunity in society will cost us dearly and that race and religion are potential fault lines in Singapore society.

Let us all work together to remind our children the importance in preserving racial and religious so that our children can always find hope of a better future here, an inclusive society with a heart, and the best home for ourselves and our families.

This year's theme for Racial Harmony is "Celebrating Singapore!"

Singapore's diversity gives us much cause to celebrate as we work towards envisioning and creating a more inclusive Singapore.

This year during Racial Harmony Day, let us celebrate our diversity and richness as we come together and find strength from our shared experiences and heritage.

Pupils are encouraged to come to school in their traditional costumes or other ethnics' traditional costumes on 18 July (Thursday). They are not allowed to wear slippers with their traditional costumes.
